

Marta Tomczak M.A.

tomczak@isppan.waw.pl

Education

2015 - now: Polish Academy of Sciences, Ph.D. candidate at Institute of Political Studies

2006 – 2008: Renmin University, Shanghai branch, China – graduate studies, International Economy, taught in Chinese

2000 - 2002: Language and Cultural University, Beijing, China – undergraduate studies, Chinese language and culture, taught in Chinese

1997 – 2003: Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznan, Poland – MA in Linguistics and Information Science

Academic achievements

1 forthcoming academic book review (2016)

1 contribution to the monograph (2016)

3 academic conferences with a paper (2016)

1 award of Ministry of Education for Young Scholars (2000)

Professional experience

2016-now – Chinese polonica specialist at National Library

2014-2015 - project director at Chinese-Polish NGO

2004-2012 - international business consultant and analyst in China and Turkey

Academic interests:

Chinese international politics, political discourse analysis, Chinese soft power and use of international institutions, the political situation of Kurds in Turkey and Iraq.